Unlocking Excellence:

How Ordinary Teams Deliver Extraordinary Results

THE OPPORTUNITY

Teams are busy, committed and working hard, yet many still struggle to achieve the results they want.

Despite investments in technology, systems and automation, hidden barriers continue to undermine performance.

What is preventing teams from delivering their best?

AUDIENCES WILL DISCOVER

- How to identify the hidden inefficiencies that erode performance.
- How to unlock latent team capacity.
- A simple framework to align priorities that matter most.
- How to improve engagement through meaningful involvement.
- The art of delivering better results without working harder.

AUDIENCE OUTCOME

Drawing on nearly three decades of experience, Ishan Galapathy reveals the hidden forces that undermine team productivity and how to tackle them.

Audiences will leave questioning how much untapped potential exists within their own teams and they will be equipped with practical actions to unleash it.

An absolutely thought provoking, interactive and engaging presentation

ANZ Director Sales & Commercial Strategy, Oracle

Ishan was extremely engaging. The session was interactive and had participants really trying to imagine and grapple with the 'what if'.

Lean Manager, Thales

Ishan's insights into improving efficiencies and engaging people to do their best work had concrete take aways that I was able to put into use immediately.

Deputy President, CPA Australia
